

Financial Loans for Assistive Technology

Appalachian Assistive Technology Loan Fund (AATLF) is a non-profit organization that helps Kentuckians with disabilities, their families, and older adults fund assistive technology. AATLF provides no-fee zero percent interest loans for the purchase of assistive technology. AATLF also provides financial education resources for people with disabilities, their families, and educators.

Examples of Assistive Technology

- Hearing aids and other hearing technology
- Wheelchairs and scooters
- Fences for safety and accessible walkways
- Stairlifts
- Computers and tablets
- Home modifications for accessibility
- Smart home technology
- Adaptive sports equipment

Mini Loan Program
Loan Amount	$100 - $7,000
Interest Rate	0%
Fees	None
Repayment Terms	Maximum repayment term is 4 years

Who is eligible to apply?

- AATLF is a program for anyone who needs assistive technology devices and/or services.
- AATLF helps people of all ages, all disabilities and health conditions, all income levels, from all communities and cultural backgrounds.
- An applicant must have the ability and willingness to repay a loan.

Loan Amounts

Loan applications must include all supporting documentation. A list of what is required is included on the application coversheet. It is important to note that AATLF cannot extend a loan exceeding the actual cost of the assistive technology.